IT services
Florence Site Coordinator: Andrea Marchionni.
Pisa Site Coordinator: Alessio Pacifici Pace.
Bari Site Coordinator: Stefano Carito.
Other personnel: Simone Ferrini, Massimo Onor.

The main functions of the office are:
- design, development and administration of the Institute's IT network;
- network and data security with particular attention to security mechanisms for data protection and, in particular, personal data;
- management and data protection for email accounts;
- management of personal computers, notebooks and printers;
- management of computerized procedures at local and centralized level;
- management of the Sharepoint platform;
- supervision of supplies of IT material;
- collaboration with other offices for the purchase of new equipment and maintenance of existing equipment;
- analysis of requirements and functionality, design and development of IT procedures and applications aimed at improving the activities/functions performed by the offices;
- support for the operation of IT networks, hardware and software maintenance of the Institute's equipment.